Push the pins of the TKO™ against the knob/handle. The pins in contact with the highest points of the knob/handle will depress while the others remain extended. The extended pins engage the sides of the knob/handle so that it turns when the TKO™ handle is twisted.